

Deposit Agreement

All tattoo appointments require a security deposit which will go towards the cost of the tattoo upon completion. If your tattoo requires multiple sessions, the deposit will be held aside until the final session.

Cancellations/Rescheduling:

In order to cancel/reschedule your appointment, your artist requires a minimum of 7 days notice. This means that your deposit is fully refundable, or transferable to your new appointment. In the case that you do not give enough notice, a percentage of the deposit will be forfeited.

Cancelling or rescheduling within:

- 24 hours of appointment = forfeit 100% of deposit
- 3 days of appointment = forfeit 50% of deposit

Once tattooing has commenced, the deposit is strictly non-refundable. If your deposit is forfeited, and you want to continue working with your artist, you will be required to pay another deposit.

Design Fee:

Where applicable, the artist may charge a separate design fee, or they may include it in the deposit amount. If the artist has not started work on your design at the time of cancellation, the design fee will be refunded. However, if the artist has completed/started the design at the time of cancellation, the design fee is non-refundable.

Traveling Clients:

Neither the artist nor the studio will be held responsible or financially liable for any travel expenses, or other costs incurred in case of a cancellation by a client or artist.

Any extenuating circumstances or discrepancies will be handled privately, professionally and personally. The rules of the agreement are concrete, but we welcome you to speak with your artist should any issues arise.
